To Whom It May Concern

This will inform that Salman Ubaid Bhatti has been employed as a lecturer of Computer Science by Infinity Institute of Technology from 1st July 2021 to current date. During his tenure of employment, he has displayed a unique ability to identify and solve problems. He has been instrumental in streamlining our computer science department. His experience in the teaching of computer science area has been value able asset, one which can be of great value to any institution utilizing his service. He is loyal and always places the welfare of institution above all else. His long hours and his patience with employees under him and with management make him ideal employee. If available, he can certainly count on re-employment with our institution, should the opportunity arise.

Any institution considering this individual for employment has my most enthusiastic recommendation. If his performance here is any indication, he is destined to new heights in his career, and set new records for his future employer, as he did here.
